The Ministry of Food Processing Industries (MoFPI), dedicated to facilitating investments across the entire value chain. This industry is more than just a commercial endeavor; it bridges the gap between Indian farmers and consumers, both domestically and internationally.

India's food processing prowess spans various sectors, including grains, sugar, edible oils, beverages, and dairy products. Moreover, the government's strategic initiatives under the Pradhan Mantri Kisan Sampada Yojana (PMKSY) have yielded 41 Mega Food Parks, 376 Cold Chain projects, 79 Agro-Processing Clusters, and numerous other projects that have been approved throughout the nation.

production, or the meteoric growth of online grocery retail, forecasted to reach $10-12 billion by 2025.
